

Rule 8006-1

DESIGNATION OF RECORD -- APPEAL

(a) Until the United States District Court implements a CM/ECF system, the cost of copying the items to be included in the record on appeal shall be the responsibility of the party designating the item. The party designating the items may print the items directly from the Court's Electronic Filing System if the items are in the system in an electronic format.

(b) Once the United States District Court has implemented a CM/ECF system, the Clerk shall transmit the designated items electronically to the United States District Court, without the need for the party designating the items to provide copies of the items.

(c) A transcript order form (available from the Clerk) shall accompany a request for transcript filed pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 8007.

Notes of Advisory Committee

2004 Amendment

This amendment corrects the Bankruptcy Rules citation to that of the currently used citation. Further, this amendment, 8006-1(a) recognizes the ability of a party to print designated items directly from the Court's electronic filing system.

1997 Amendment

This amendment conforms the existing Local Rules to the uniform numbering system prescribed by the Judicial Conference of the United States and to the model system suggested and approved by the Advisory Committee on Bankruptcy Rules of the Judicial Conference's Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure. In renumbering the Local Rules to conform to the uniform numbering system, no change in substance is intended. This amendment is effective on April 15, 1997.

Paragraph (a) of this rule was formerly Local Rule 4.04. Paragraph (b) of this rule was formerly Local Rule 4.03. The Advisory Committee Notes to the superseded rules may be helpful in interpreting and applying the current rules.
